Membership Information

Our Mission

To expand the economic, educational, and civic growth of the region; address relevant social concerns; and develop improvements that enhance the quality of life and promote the area as a welcoming, supportive community in which to live, work, visit, and conduct business.

Our Region

We cover the areas of Lewis County east of I-5 all the way to White Pass, and north to the County line. This region is nearly three-fourths of the County geographically, and includes a number of small towns, rural communities, recreational amenities, and tourist attractions. We also welcome membership from businesses and organizations in other areas that provide services and sell products to this region.

Our Goals

Promote East Lewis County as a welcoming, inclusive community for visitors, potential business investors, people looking to relocate, and current residents.

Expand new business development in East Lewis County and support existing businesses to enhance their operations and profitability.

Address social concerns that affect the quality of life and potential for new business and development in the community.

Represent economic and civic interests for the entire East County region, to develop improvements through education, networking, and activism.

Networking

East Lewis County Chamber of Commerce community events, evening meetings, and annual dinners provide great opportunities to network.

Programs

Topics include civic and community issues, leadership, and business-related subjects. The Chamber surveys the membership for areas of interest and suggestions, and plans accordingly.

Community Involvement

East Lewis County Chamber of Commerce addresses real issues that impact our communities, via our goals and action plans. We support youth, families, and organizations through our affiliated 501(c)(3) charitable organization -- Rural Connections (RLCCDO).

A Place for Everyone

East Lewis County Chamber of Commerce has a diverse membership, including people from all types of businesses and non-profit organizations, whether owners or employees, female or male. We also welcome individuals to join. It is an organization in which everyone can feel welcome and fully participate as a member.
